Mr. Loch K. Johnson
Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence
House of Representatives
Washington, D.C. 20515

Buefling

Dear Loch:

I am forwarding three copies each of the statements that [redacted] will make before the Aspin Subcommittee on 11 May 1978.

I am also including three copies of the witness list.

I hope to have the statement that [redacted] will make by the afternoon of 10 May and will make every effort to get it to you by mid-afternoon.

For the Hearing, I propose the following for your
and Representative Aspin's consideration:

Lead off with a brief (less than 10 minutes) statement by [redacted] on: (1) definition of the problem, and (2) explanation of which units within CIA are addressing the problem of terrorism.

This to be followed by another brief (less than five minutes) statement by [redacted] on the role of the Covert Action Staff in combatting terrorism.

The third and final statement will be by [redacted]
It too will be short (less than five minutes) on the legal barriers to CIA's cooperation with foreign services' efforts to combat local terrorism.

These three statements should take roughly twenty minutes and I am hopeful that they will provide useful underpinning for a subsequent question and answer period.

Best regards,

[redacted]
Assistant Legislative Counsel

Briefing!

Mr. Patrick G. Long Permanent Select Committee
on Intelligence
House of Representatives
Washington, D.C. 20515

Dear Pat:

I am forwarding one copy each of the statements that [redacted] will make before the Aspin Subcommittee on 11 May 1978.

I am also including a copy of the witness list.

I hope to have the statement that [redacted] will make by the afternoon of 10 May and will make every effort to get it to you by mid-afternoon.

For the hearing, I have proposed that the three briefers give their opening remarks first and then open up the session for questions. The opening remarks should not take more than twenty minutes.

Sincerely,

[redacted]

Assistant Legislative Counsel
